2. Lake Como, Italy

Italy has always been one of the best places to go with kids and idyllic Lake Como is the cherry on top. With public ferries that are a perfect perch for sightseeing and sleek yachts owned by Hollywood celebs that will wow even jaded teens, the lake is the sparkling centerpiece of this slice of Italian paradise.

The lovely lakeside promenade is even stroller-friendly for families vacationing with toddlers and gelato shops around every corner keep the whole family refreshed. Ride the funicular up the steep mountainside and in seven minutes you'll arrive in Brunate, a frozen-in-time hilltop village with views of the lake and the nearby Alps.

Splurge on this European getaway with a stay at Vista Palazzo Lago di Como, where everyone in the family can enjoy the perks of full butler service.
